A day that fits the way you travel

MAKE MORE OF JAPAN

Fumi is being developed to connect places with practical context. Explore Japan today with the free Fumi Tours guides.

Begin with your interests

Tell Fumi what you enjoy, how far you want to travel and what would make the day comfortable.

Put the day together

Consider travel, walking, timing, meal stops and alternatives without filling every minute.

Understand the setting

Learn why a place matters and how to visit respectfully. Local rules and current notices take priority.

Adjust as you go

Revisit the plan when the weather, energy level or opening hours change. Verify live conditions with the relevant source.

- “We have a free afternoon near the hotel and would like a quiet walk, something cultural and a good meal.”
